Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") of TriMas Corporation (the "Company") has approved the dismissal of KPMG LLP ("KPMG") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm upon completion of both (i) KPMG's review of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the three-months ending March 31, 2013 and (ii) the engagement of a new independent registered public accounting firm. On February 28, 2013, the Company notified KPMG that the Audit Committee intends to conduct a competitive process to select a firm to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2013.

KPMG's audit reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. The audit reports of KPMG on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively, did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the audit report of KPMG on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2012 contained an explanatory paragraph stating that the Company acquired Arminak & Associates, LLC ("Arminak") during 2012 and management excluded from its assessment of the effectiveness of TriMas Corporation's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2012, Arminak's internal control over financial reporting associated with total assets of $102.2 million, which represented 9.0% of the Company's consolidated assets at December 31, 2012, and net sales of $65.9 million, which represented 5.2% of the Company's consolidated total net sales for 2012. KPMG's audit of internal control over financial reporting of the Company also excluded an evaluation of the internal control over financial reporting of Arminak.

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, there were (i) no disagreements between the Company and KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG, would have caused KPMG to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in their reports on the financial statements for such years, and (ii) no "reportable events" as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company provided KPMG with a copy of the disclosures it is making in this Current Report on Form 8-K (the "Report") prior to the time the Report was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). The Company requested that KPMG furnish a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agrees with the statements made herein. A copy of KPMG's letter dated March 6, 2013 is attached as Exhibit 16.1 hereto.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We are the principal accountants for TriMas Corporation and, under the date of February 26, 2013, we reported on the consolidated financial statements of TriMas Corporation and subsidiaries as of and for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011 and on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2012. Our report dated February 26, 2013 on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2012, contains an explanatory paragraph stating that TriMas Corporation acquired Arminak & Associates, LLC (“Arminak”) during 2012 and management excluded from its assessment of the effectiveness of TriMas Corporation’s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2012, Arminak’s internal control over financial reporting associated with total assets of $102.2 million, which represented 9.0% of TriMas Corporation’s consolidated assets at December 31, 2012, and net sales of $65.9 million, which represented 5.2% of TriMas Corporation’s consolidated total net sales for 2012. Our audit of internal control over financial reporting of TriMas Corporation also excluded an evaluation of the internal control over financial reporting of Arminak.

On February 28, 2013, we were notified by TriMas Corporation that the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors approved the dismissal of KPMG LLP as TriMas Corporation’s independent registered public accounting firm upon completion of both (i) our review of the consolidated financial statements as of and for the three-months ended March 31, 2013 and (ii) the engagement of a new independent registered public accounting firm. We have read TriMas Corporation’s statements included under Item 4.01 of its Form 8-K dated March 6, 2013, and we agree with such statements, except that we are not in a position to agree or disagree with TriMas Corporation’s statement that the change was approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and that the Audit Committee intends to conduct a competitive process to select a firm to serve as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2013.

Very truly yours,

/s/ KPMG LLP
